<sup>1</sup>THE FAMILY COURTS ACT, 1964

(Act XXXV of 1964)

[18th July, 1964]

An Act to make provision for the establishment of Family Courts.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make provision for the establishment of Family Courts for the expeditious settlement and disposal of disputes relating to marriage and family affairs and for matters connected therewith;

It is hereby enacted as follows: —

Short title, extent and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the <sup>2</sup>[***] Family Courts Act, 1964.

(2) It extends to the whole of <sup>3</sup>[Pakistan].

(3) It shall come into force in such area or areas and on such date or dates as Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, specify in this behalf.

<sup>4</sup>[(4) Nothing in this Act shall apply to any suit or any application under the Guardians and Wards Act, 1890<sup>5</sup>, pending for trial or hearing in any Court immediately before the coming into force of this Act, and all such suits and applications shall be heard and disposed of as if this Act was not in force.

(5) Any suit, or any application under the Guardians and Wards Act, 1890<sup>5</sup>, which was pending for trial or hearing in any Court immediately before the coming into force of this Act, and which has been dismissed solely on the ground that such suit or application is to be tried by a Family Court established under this Act, shall, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any law, on petition made to it in that behalf by any party to the suit or application, be tried and heard by such Court from the stage at which such suit or application had
